. ... I didn't want to, but I left. And it's not much of a fault. I thought I'd go out to my husband in the night, into the darkness, out of the silence. But it turned out - to the people, to the people, to the crowd, to evil that comes from the soul. And at that moment I felt that I am separated from God. I'm separated from God which means from themselves. And it hurt a lot. And it was scary in vain. May God forgive me these torments, May it give me the strength to endure. May God be so merciful to me how I desire mercy on Him. Let it go
